

LICENSED & INSURED

10-Year Warranty: Solar Panel Removal & Replacement

As part of our commitment to providing exceptional service, we offer a 10-Year Warranty to homeowners solar panel detachment and reset services. This warranty is designed to provide homeowners with confidence and peace of mind, knowing that their solar system is well cared for and will continue to operate effectively.

Warranty Coverage

- Workmanship Guarantee: We ensure the quality of our work. Should any issues arise due to improper detachment, handling, or reinstallation of a homeowners solar panels, we will promptly address them at no cost to the homeowner.
- Performance Assurance: Following the reinstallation of a homeowners solar panels, a system functionality check will be performed to confirm proper operation. If any performance issues directly related to our service arise, we will resolve them under this warranty.
- Labor Costs: All labor costs associated with addressing issues covered under this warranty will be handled by our company, ensuring no additional charges to the homeowner.

Exclusions and Limitations

This warranty does not cover damage caused by external factors such as extreme weather conditions, accidents, or unauthorized modifications to the solar system. To maintain the validity of this warranty, it is important that maintenance of a homeowners solar system is conducted, when needed, by our technicians. Should a homeowner need to schedule for maintenance, an additional charge will incur of $175. To cover the system functionality test.

We guarantee that any area where solar panels are installed will remain leak-free. In the event of a leak occurring in these areas, we take full responsibility for the repair. However, please note that this warranty does not cover areas of the roof where solar panels were not installed.

